THE HIDDEN MESSAGE AND MEANING OF THE STAR OF DAVID EMBLEM

A GENTILE'S TRIBUTE TO ISRAEL

By RALPH MADDEN — England

The emblem Magen David is now seen in all parts of the earth proclaiming upon the flag of the Israeli State the re-birth of one of the world's most ancient powers; a nation of fewer than three million people, closely confined within her limited boundaries, surrounded by bitter enemies and consisting of people who have come from the far corners of the earth; diverse in many aspects of life, yet coming from both east and west to learn the way of true citizenship and to be integrated in the newly born State of Israel.

What can we expect of such a people?

What are the ties and factors upon which they claim partnership in such a nation, and in what way may the newcomer best serve that nation?

It is true that the compulsive power of love for the fatherland, the home of the founders of their nation, has drawn many, yet it is sadly admitted many others have been driven there by persecutions. None the less they have cried with love for their homeland and an abiding place on earth for their families to be brought up in peace and security. But in this people, so unique in past history, and in their present re-gathering, is to be found a greater factor than ethnical ties, a factor transcending the ideological cohesiveness of modern nations. The factor is spiritual in essence yet is proving the soundest foundation upon which a nation may build its economy as it penetrates the whole governmental administration, both central and local. Such an enviable foundation is set in their belief in Yahweh, the God of their fathers Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and their adoption of the Divine Law received through their leader Moses, by which they have become consolidated — a nation bonded by blood and faith.

As they congregate from afar, drawn by such ties as nature and faith, the newly accepted citizens can best serve their nation by serving the Almighty, the Spiritual Father and Guardian of His people. They come, not only to the land of their inheritance but, with renewed faith and dedication to their Heavenly Father, to His Laws and Commandments, to security under Him and to their predestined place amongst the nations.

What then, is this hidden message in the ancient emblem Magen David, which speaks to us today?

Look at the intersecting triangles, one upright and one inverted, and there we have the key thought to guide us in our acceptance of the momentous events which have led to the establishment of the Israeli State, and our hopes for the future of that State in a world of turmoil and strife.

The message in the one triangle symbolises descent, for in its inverted position it points downwards, whilst the message in the other, which points upwards, is one of ascent.

These opposite terms explain the basic force behind the people of Israel. We shall understand them much more clearly if we study carefully the 26th. chapter of Leviticus and the 28th. chapter of Deuteronomy. They declare the blessings, rewards and national supremacy to be obtained by honouring Elohim and obeying His Laws and wishes and, on the other hand, the punishments and degradations to be experienced for disobedience. The latter specifically decrees cursings, dispersions, loss of all earthly power and subjection to other nations.

Truly, these have been the experiences of the people of Israel. They lost their Kingdom, they lost their Temple of Worship, they lost their land; millions lost their lives and shed their blood as they went down, down, to be dispersed among the heathen nations, to be buffeted and tormented through their years of subjugation to those powers. This was truly factual and the message of the inverted triangle. In all those sorrows of exile, whilst seemingly all had gone which could hold them together as a people, there remained but one wonderful hidden power which united them — they preserved the Law of Elohim, they remained the custodians of the Divine Code, which was as vital as their own life blood to their existence. No Temple, no King, no Land — only their Law which has been the distinguishing character of their Race at all times in all lands and now has become the Key to the changes that have taken place, culminating in their home coming and recent prosperity.

The "dispersion and DESCENT" was finely measured in its period of time; the scriptures refer to it as being a period of "Seven times" duration, which was to pass over Israel.

"Then I will punish you seven times more for your sins."

(Lev. 26: 18)

"And yet for all that I will not cast them away, neither will I abhor them to destroy them utterly and to break my covenant with them for I am the Lord their God. But I will for their sakes remember the covenant of their ancestors."

(Lev. 26: 44, 45)

After the punishment would come the change:

"And the Lord shall make thee the head, and not the tail; and thou shalt be above only, and thou shalt not be beneath, if that thou hearken unto the commandments of the Lord thy God."

(Deut. 28: 13)

Would one dare deny that we are now witnessing the actual happening of the change that was foretold?

Dare one deny the fact that the land of Israel was secured in 1917 on the defeat of the Turkish Mahommedan power?

Dare one deny that on the 14th May 1948 Israel established herself as an independent united nation before the peoples of the world and that on the 11th May 1949 she was admitted as a member of the United Nations Organization?

If it is impossible to deny the above facts it is, at the same time, possible to see and accept them as signs portending a new life for Israel. They are the first sign of rebirth and are, as in the natural experience of birth, gradual in the process of attaining maturity; but they do tell us plainly that a period of transition is taking place; Israel is now on the ASCENT; her days of dispersion and darkness are passing; light and life are with her now.

The first entry of the Jews into their "promised land" and their former settling there was a gradual process under the guardianship and guidance of the Angel of Elohim.

(Read Exodus 23: 22-31; and Isaiah 63: 7-9)

In like manner it is destined that the final consolidation shall take place under the heavenly supervision of:

"Michael the great prince which standeth for the children of Thy People."

(Daniel 12: 1)

Now, as formerly, Israel is surrounded by its avowed enemies. There is Egypt and all the others by American. Israel is not a member of apart from Islam is a determination to destroy Israel utterly. Some are armed by Russia and others by America. Israel is not a member of any political bloc and it would seem this tiny unique nation has just gathered together to face annihilation, were it not for the fact that behind Israel and its assembling is the one power that can never be destroyed, the Divine
