DISCOVERY OF NOAH'S ARKINTERVIEW WITH JAMES M. LEE, SECRETARY OF THE SEARCH
FOUNDATION FOR NOAH'S ARK, INC., WASHINGTON, D.C. 20012

I.D., Ph.D.

Lee. — Doctor Liedmann, we first met at the Hilton Hotel in Chicago at the International Convention of the FGBMFI. Demos Sharian, the International President, had asked me to attend the convention and show the pieces of wood found on Mount Ararat in 1969 by the SEARCH Foundation Team, and the movie film of the expedition. You will recall that I was standing at a table showing interested persons the print of an original painting of the mountain, when you walked up to the table, pointed to the picture and said, "The Ark is there!" You seemed to be so positive in your remark that we entered into a discussion of the subject and then learned that you had had a very remarkable experience which you partially revealed to those standing there. Doctor Liedmann, will you please tell us about some of the background of your family, your experiences in Sweden, and how it is that you are so confident in your own mind that Noah's Ark still remains high up on the upper slopes of Mount Ararat?

Liedmann. — Yes, I will be happy to do so,

Mr. Lee. I was born in Sweden of Orthodox Jewish parents who had migrated from the Russian Ukraine. From them I learned the Russian language. As a Jew I also learned the Hebrew and Aramaic languages. I have been interested in many different archeological discoveries around the world — especially those connected with Old Testament history. My experience concerning Mount Ararat was a remarkable experience in itself, as you will see, and I still marvel at it myself. I have never related this story of my experience to anyone since it happened in 1947 and 1948.

I received my medical degree in Upsala, Sweden, where I also studied and received my specialty in neurosurgery. I should mention here that I had been studying medicine for approximately five years when I quit my studies and volunteered for the R.A.F. for a six-month tour of active duty. I fought against the Germans, and was shot down twice by them and was injured in my back.

After my recovery I went back to medical school again and began studying hematology down in Heidelberg. It was on one of my trips down there that I became acquainted with a Russian Air Force major. This was in Ham-
