

conditions of the hearts of men, just before the Messiah returns? Luke 21:24-26.

NOTE: How wonderfully was this prophecy fulfilled, with the Jews scattered in every part of the world, and Jerusalem trodden down by the Gentiles for nearly two thousand years. Now, however, we see them returning to Jerusalem and Israel from every country. They are gathered there now from the nations, and we behold the distress and perplexity that is everywhere seen among all nations. The hearts of men are also filled with fear, of the things coming to pass upon the world just as the Saviour said it would be preceding His return.

5. What is our duty in this present time of darkness? Isaiah 60:1,2.

6. What will be done with those who are unfruitful in the work of the Lord? John 15:2, and Matthew 25:30.

7. With what should the labourers for Christ be clothed? Ephesians 6:10-18.

NOTE: "It is not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit", Zech. 4:6, that the successful work is accomplished in the vineyard of the Master. It is the prayerful life, and the complete consecration depending wholly on the Spirit and power from above, to lead, and send conviction to hearts of the people. "Praying always, with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit"

STRIFE AND VAIN GLORY

NOTE: A rich man once invited many honoured guests for a feast. His own chair, richly decorated, was placed at one end of the long table. While awaiting his arrival, each guest seated himself according to his own esteem of his position in the sight of the Master. When the time came and all were seated, the Master came in and moved his chair to the other end of the table! It is clear from the Scriptures, that our Heavenly Father, like the Master in the illustration above, shuns pride. Christ, the greatest man to ever walk on earth, the Son of God himself, came as a humble carpenter. He could have been born a son of an earthly king, and accepted kingship in His earthly life. He chose to abide by the will of His Father, to live and die a servant. This is the example that we are to follow if we want to be in the Kingdom of Heaven.

Scripture Reading: Luke 22:24-30.

PAUL, THE GREAT EVANGELIST

Scripture Reading: Acts 9:10-20.

Memory Verse: 2 Timothy 4:7.

1. What do we know about Paul's early life? Acts 22:3. Smith's Bible Dictionary suggests that he was probably taken to Jerusalem as a boy for his education.

NOTE: Saul means "asked, "desired". Paul means "small" or "little". These names are very appropriate to the life of the Apostle. He was desired of men, very prominent and highly trusted by the leaders. After his conversion, however, he was very humble.

2. Discuss the following points in the story of Paul's conversion (Acts 9). The mission renewed? Col. 3:10.

9. In following Christ whose will must we seek? John 5:30.

10. What is one test of the Christian so noticeable to all? 1 John 2:15-17.

THE IMPORTANCE OF SOUND DOCTRINE

Scripture Reading: 2 Thessalonians 2.

Memory Verse: John 7:16.

1. Are we warned against an evil power that will corrupt the truth?

2 Thessalonians 2:7,8.

2. Who will be deceived by this power? 2 Thes. 2:9,10.

NOTE: Particular emphasis should be made here on the fact that it is necessary to possess "a love for the truth." It does not say this power will deceive all who do not possess the truth, but all of those who do not possess "a love for the truth." It is extremely dangerous to close our eyes against new thoughts which might not be what we Israel, what is said about him having power, both with the Father and also with men? Genesis 32:28.

3. How much power did our Saviour possess, in bringing to his assistance these unseen messengers from heaven? Matt. 26:53,54.

6. When the final judgments are in the earth, and the seven last plagues are upon the whole world, who will deliver the faithful members of this one family? Psalms 91:10,11.

7. What is the reason given for the angels delivering the true members of this holy family in the time of trouble? Verse 14; Daniel 12:1.

NOTE: These are two reasons given here for deliverance in this time of trouble. One is "setting our love upon the Father", the sign of which is keeping His commandments (1 John 5:3), and the other is because we have known His Name.

8. What is said of this chosen family in regard to light? Matt. 5:14-16.

9. In this time of darkness what

8. What are parents commanded to teach their children? Deuteronomy 6:6,7.

9. Are we considered to be of the same family as the angels of heaven? Ephesians 3:14,15. Revelation 22:8,9.

NOTE: From this scripture, we notice it does not speak of families in the plural, but of just one family, of which the angels are a part. They are more powerful, yet these unseen guests and messengers encamp around about the faithful ones. The faithful ones depend fully upon the intervening hand from above to lead them, and to direct and protect them.

10. What beautiful promise has the Lord given that our efforts and sacrifice will not be in vain, as we work for the lost ones? Isaiah 55:10,11.

11. What kind of a giver does the Lord love? 2 Corinthians 9:6-15.

DO NOT BE ASHAMED TO BE A CHRISTIAN

NOTE: To be a follower of the most enlightened man of all ages, is nothing to be ashamed of. To be a fellow heir with the Son of the Creator of the universe is something to celebrate! While it is true that some may ridicule and persecute us for the sake of Christ, He tells us sin, it is also true that a man can refuse, and reject this grace at any point in his life. Many are teaching, Once saved always saved; such a teaching is without foundation in God's Word. When man repents of sin and turns to God he does not lose his free moral agency. We still have the right and ability to determine our own destiny.

the Bible of people who lived according to the will of God. In Christ Jesus all is possible. "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me," was the testimony of one who walked with God. Philippians 4:13. The victorious life comes as a result of constant resistance to the temptations of the devil. Christ met every temptation with a Scriptural answer in His resistance to Satan in the wilderness. Following His example we should be guided by Biblical standards in our wrestling against spiritual wickedness in high places.

4. How did he appear in the council? Acts 6:15.

6. What was the reaction to this discourse? Acts 7:54,
7. How did Stephen respond to this attitude? What was the outcome? Acts 7:55-60.

NOTE: Although it is needless to call to your attention the similarity between Christ's and Stephen's death, it is worthy of mention. Both trials were farces, both were falsely accused, and both died praying for their murderers. Saul, later known as Paul, entered the picture at this point. (Acts 22:20) Do you think this experience influenced his conversion? Do you think Christ would have chosen Paul had not this experience softened his heart?

NOTE: While Jesus and His disciples were eating the Passover, Jesus took bread, blessed it and said, take, eat, this is My Body. This unleavened bread represented His Body.
