LIVING FOR JESUS AND FAITHFULNESS IN STEWARDSHIP

Memory verse: John 15:2.

3. With what loving words are we told to follow His example? Matt. 16:24-26.
4. Is there a great reward for being a faithful steward? V. 27.
Note. — There are more ways-of giving one's life than giving it in death as a martyr. One can also lose his life in service for the Lord Jesus Christ.
5. What is the Bible definition of a tithe? Lev. 27:30-32.
6. To whom does the tithe belong? Verse 30.
7. What are we in the Lord's sight if we fail to pay that which is due Him? Mal. 3:8.
8. What will be the terrible punishment which will come upon the unprofitable servant? Matt. 25:30.

Note. — Therefore it is very important to live close to the Lord in prayer in order to be sure of paying tithes where they will be profitable to Him and the true cause for which the Lord Jesus died. There are many deceivers and false teachers which we would not want to support. Matt. 24:24; 2 Tim. 3:13.

9. What are some outstanding examples in the Old Testament of tithe paying? Gen. 14:18-20; Gen. 28:20-22.
10. Did Christ sanction tithe paying? Matt. 23:23; 22:15-21.
11. Are offerings also required of us? Mal. 3:8, last part.

Note. --- We actually do not give the Lord anything in paying tithes, for the tenth of our income is His. He says it belongs to Him. He created the heavens and the earth. Naturally the earth and all that which is on it belongs to Him. See Psalms 24:1 and 50:10. He upholds and sustains it. Heb. 1:3.

The tithe which is holy unto the Lord actually provides us with another pair of feet to go forth with the gospel of salvation as our Savior would do if He were actually here on earth again as a man. It gives us a part in preaching the message of salvation unto all the world, to which work He has called every person baptized and redeemed from the world.

THE CHRISTIAN DUTY OF REJOICING

Scripture reading: Psalms 97.

Memory verse: Phil. 4:4.

1. What admonition does the Psalmist give the righteous? Psa. 5:11; 32:11; 68:3.

Note. — In the Word of God we find many references which exhort those who love and serve the Lord to be joyful and to express their joy in no uncertain manner.

2. Why should the Christian rejoice even when persecuted? Luke 6:23; Acts 5:41; 1 Peter 1:5-9.

Note. — It was from a prison cell, when his future was uncertain, that the Apostle Paul enjoined his converts to “rejoice in the Lord always,” and then, as if he thought some would consider this a rash and impossible command, he convinced them by repeating, “And again I say, Rejoice!” Phil. 4:4.

3. What shall the reward of those who sow in tears? Psa. 126:5, 6.

4. The joyful Christian will possess what characteristics? Rom. 12:10-15.
Note. - The ungrateful soul cannot rejoice; it is too full of self, of murmurings, to see the cause of joy. The late Alexander Whyte once visited an old woman who was full of murmurings. During a stay of 20 minutes he uttered not a word, but was patiently listening to her tale of woe. Then rising, he picked up his hat and gloves, and shaking her hand, said in farewell, "And mind ye forget not all His benefits!"
5. What does Solomon say is the gift of Heaven? Ecc. 3:12, 13, 22; 5:19.
6. Does the Lord require a joyful people, ever rejoicing? Joel 2:23; Deut. 12:10-12; 16:11; 1 Chron. 16:10.
Note. — If we dwell in the love of God, will we need to be exhorted to rejoice in the Lord? Do you feel that the believer who is always gloomy and despondent is failing in his obligation to God and man?
 Rejoicing in the Lord is mentioned 208 times in the Bible, and to be glad 37 times. Happiness in the Lord is also spoken of many times.

THE LAST MESSAGE

Scripture reading: Rev. 16th Chapter.

Memory verse: Rev. 16:1.

1. Upon whom will the first one of the seven last plagues be poured? Rev. 16:1.
2. Had the people been warned of the coming of these plagues, before they were poured out upon them? Rev. 14:9 and 18:4.

Note. — The Heavenly Father has never brought judgment upon a city or upon the world before He warned the people of its coming and gave them ample time to escape. He warned Sodom and Gomorrah; he warned Tyre and Sidon; He warned Nineveh and Babylon, and also the world before the flood. He is also warning this present world through His chosen, called out remnant people.

3. What two signs are given of this special time of preparation? Nahum 2:3.
4. There have been three world-wide messages sent forth since the beginning of the gospel age. What and when was the first message? Rev. 14: 6, 7.

Note. — This was the message sent forth in the days of the apostles, to a world of idolatrous people, to destroy their idols and worship Him that made the heavens and the earth. It was also the hour of judgment upon the Jewish nation. Luke 21:24.

5. What is said about the time of judgment that was a part of the first world-wide message? 1 Peter 4:17; John 16:7-11 and 12:31.

6. What was the nature of the second angel's message? Rev. 14:8.

Note. — 'Babylon the great' was the brand on the forehead of the woman of Revelation 17:5, symbolizing the church that rode on and controlled the beast during a period of 1,200 years, when this church ruled the world from Rome. The corruption and spiritual fall of this church was the world-wide message of the reformation. Those who protested against her sin and corruption have ever since been called "Protestants."

This message has gone to all the world, but the followers of these reformers no longer protest.

7. What is the nature, of the third angel's message, and against whom is it especially directed? Rev. 14:9, 10.

8. What is the next event that follows this message? Is there still another to be given, or is it time then for the King to come and reign? Rev. 14:14-16.

Note. -- Note carefully that this final message is a warning to the world of the approach of the seven last plagues. It is against the beast worship. Also that those who worship the beast, the same drink of the wine of His wrath. The memory verse of last of this lesson shows clearly that this is the seven last plagues which will be poured out upon the ungodly.

9. What does Revelation 15:1 also tell us about these last plagues? Rev. 15:1.

10. The message about the beast, and giving this warning is 'meat in due season'. For these things truly are at the door at this time. In what class are the foolish virgins placed whose light went out after the 11th hour, and the servants who said His coming is delayed? Matt. 24:45-51 and Matt. 25:8-12.

Note. — Any group that claims to be the Church of God but refuses to give out this 'meat in due season' message and lays it upon the shelf to keep unity among their leaders or for any other reason, is not the "Remnant church" and should not be held up and supported by any of the true servants.

3. What about watching, and not knowing the exact time when the Lord Jesus will return? Matt. 24:36, 42, compare 1 Thess. 5:2-4.

Note. --- It is utterly impossible for anyone to get the time figured down to so fine a point as to the very day and the very hour, but according to many scriptures, we will not be in total darkness. We will know near the time of this great event, and we are told to watch. Note Rev. 3:3.

4. What servant does the Lord Jesus call “blessed”? Is it the one who is watching or the one who says His coming is delayed? Matt. 24:43-51.

Note. — Both of these are servants. This is not speaking of the righteous and the wicked ones, but of His servants. One class are giving out “the meat in due season.” They are the watchful. While the others are sidetracked from the message of His coming, drop the “meat in due season” message and preach salvation and smite their fellow servants.

5. The Lord Jesus goes right on with His sermon, as recorded in the next chapter, and tells us of other servants who are lost. How many were wise and how many were foolish? Matt. 25:1, 2.

6. What was the difference between these two classes? Matt. 25:3, 4.

Note. — These foolish virgins or servants were of the same class as those who failed to give out meat in due season. They had their lamps which had gone out. Hence they were not giving out the warning in due season message, at the midnight hour, and were shut out with the hypocrites. Their lights had gone out.

7. The foolish woke up when it was too late and realized their mistake. Were they received anyway, or were they shut out? Matt. 25:11, 12.

8. What is said about the true remnant people in regards to being lights to the world? Matt. 5:14, 16.

9. What is further said about this little flock relative to their stewardship, and giving out the light? Luke 12:32-35.
