Lesson for October 3, 1987

ACCEPTING CHRIST'S TEACHINGS

The very word "Christian" means "Christ-like." If we are to be like Christ, we must accept His teachings. The Christian cannot take the attitude of the world regarding the teachings of Christ. He cannot say: "Well, He was a super good man, and what He said is good, but it just doesn't work in reality." Or, "It just won't work for an ordinary person like me." The true Christian must believe in the reality of Christ's teachings. He must not only know them, He must live them.

Scripture Reading: Mark 10:17-30.

Memory Verse: Mark 10:21, 22.

1. For the sake of the kingdom of God, what portion of one's lot must one give up? Luke 12:33.
2. What question did a certain man once ask Jesus and what was Christ's response to him? Mark 10:17-19.
3. What was the response to Jesus? Vs. 20.
4. What was the second requirement which Jesus made known? Vs. 21.
5. Did the man accept the above requirements? Vs. 22.

8. Did all accept Christ's teaching? John 6:60, 66.
9. Did some of Jesus' disciples accept the teachings? John 6:67-68. Compare Matt. 19:27, Luke 5:11.
10. What was Jesus promises to those of His disciples who endured His teachings? Matt. 19:28, 29; Luke 18:29, 30.

Lesson for October 10, 1987

REMOVE NOT THE ANCIENT LANDMARKS

The "ancient landmarks" depicts the old faith which was delivered unto the Saints — (Jude 3). The foundation was laid by the Apostles and Prophets, the foundation stone being Jesus Christ. To be against Jesus means to be against His life and His teachings.

It should be explicitly known to everyone that the church of God — God's family on earth — does not have a "closed and stamped creed". Since God is an Omniscient Being, His knowledge and wisdom is worldwide and unconfined. It is revealed and magnified in the hearts of true Christians, from age to age and from generation to generation.

Scripture Reading: 2nd John.

Memory Verse: Prov. 22:28.

1. Upon what is the Christian's foundation built? Eph. 2:20.
2. Should this originally-laid foundation be remodeled and renovated? 1 Cor. 3:10-15.
3. What are some of the given conditions by which this foundation was laid? Rev. 14:12, 12:17; Luke 9:23-26.

STEWARDSHIP

As Christ's disciples, we are called to labor in His service, follow in His footsteps and forsake the world. But He does not ask us to endure hardship to no end. There is a glorious prize to be won through faithful Stewardship, and whatever suffering we endure in this life will be more than compensated in the next.

Scripture Reading: Matthew 19:16-30.

STRIFE AND VAIN GLORY

A rich man once invited many honored guests for a feast. His own chair, richly decorated, was placed at one end of the long table. While awaiting his arrival, each guest seated himself according to his own esteem of his position in the sight of the Master. When the time came and all were seated, the master came in and moved his chair to the other end of the table!

It is clear from the Scriptures, that our Heavenly Father, like the master in the illustration above, shuns pride. Christ, the greatest man to ever walk on earth, the Son of God himself, chose to come as a humble carpenter. He could have been born the son of an earthly king. He could also have accepted kingship at many points in his earthly life. He chose, instead, to live and die a servant. This is the example that we are to follow if we want to be great in the Kingdom of Heaven.

Scripture Reading: Luke 22:24-30.

Memory Verse: Philippians 2:3.

1. Should the saints of God strive over who should be their leader? 1 Cor. 3:3-7.

5. Should those in honored church positions look down upon those in supposedly lower office? 1 Cor. 12:13-31.
6. What is the "more excellent way" spoken of in I Cor. 12:31? 1 Cor. chapter 13.
7. What does Christ say will happen to those who demand honor? Luke 14:8-11.
8. In what manner did Paul and his co-workers preach the Gospel? 1 Thess. 1:4-9.
9. In what way should those called of God show themselves worthy? Eph. 4:1-3.

CONTENTION — A TOOL OF SATAN

"A house divided against itself cannot stand," Christ said. This well-known truth is especially applicable to the Church today. Contention and division are everywhere, and are tools Satan uses to make God's people weak. The Bible preaches strongly against strife and contention among the brethren. Christ is looking for a people who follow his example in brotherly love. Christ was very concerned about this in His prayer for His followers. His greatest desire was that, "They all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one... I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one." (John 17:21-23.)

The very testimony of our unity will cause the world to know that the Gospel which we profess is true. On the other hand, if God's people become known for contention and strife, this will reflect negatively on Christ's cause. As we study what the Bible has to say on this important subject, let us endeavor to purge our hearts of all contentious thoughts and unite in the perfect will of God.

Scripture Reading: 2 Thessalonians 5:9-15.

Memory Verse: I Cor. 11:16.

1. What causes fighting and contention? James 4:1; Prov. 26:21; Prov. 22:10; Prov. 13:10.

4. What should you do when another challenges you in a contentious manner? 1 Pet. 3:8-11.
5. What distinguishes a wise man in the eyes of God? James 3:13-18.
6. What distinguishes a foolish man? Prov. 18:6-8.
7. To what is peace likened? Mark 9:50.

Note: - In the above scripture, peace is compared to the flavor of salt. Just as salt without its flavor is useless, so the Gospel without peace is useless and ineffectual, and becomes a bitter pill to swallow.

8. How will the world know that we are the children of God? Matt. 5:9.

Lesson for November 7, 1987

MALICE

Booker T. Washington once said, "I am determined to permit no man to narrow or degrade my soul by making me hate him." Hatred and malice do just that — they degrade, defile and destroy the soul. As Christians we should avoid malice, not only as a lethal poison which kills spiritual growth, but also as the antithesis of God.

Scripture Reading: Col. 3:1-17.

Memory Verse: Col. 3:8.

1. What is a prerequisite of spiritual growth? 1 Peter 2:1, 2.
2. With what is worship incompatible? James 3:9-18.

7. What is the end of those who maliciously plot to harm others? Psalm 7:14-16.

SLANDER AND EVIL SPEAKING

No one likes to be gossiped about, nor does anyone enjoy being slandered. Yet there is certainly no shortage of gossip circles or slander manufacturers. This shows that many have no real antipathy for the sport itself, and that it is only when they themselves are the targets for its bitter arrows that they fully appreciate its loathsomeness. The next time we find ourselves participating in any kind of “evil talking” or unkind speculation, we would do well to examine our motives. We would also do well to ask ourselves if we really know what we are talking about. Often people repeat things about which they have no first-hand knowledge. They may not even know the person whom they are slandering, but have just heard “this and that” from some “insider.” This insider often is, in reality, an “outsider” — which is why he starts the slander in the first place! In fact, some of the chief motives for slander are feelings of inferiority and jealousy, brought on by a weak spiritual state and a need to justify one’s self by denigrating others.

Scripture Reading: Ephesians chapter 4.

Memory Verse: Eph. 4:29.

1. What is the source of slander? Matthew 15:19; Luke 6:45.
2. Should we trust those who indulge in slander? Jeremiah 9:5.
3. What class of people delights in gossip? Proverbs 11:9; Psalm 50:20; Jeremiah 6:28.
4. What are the effects of slander? Proverbs 6:19; 16:28; 18:8; 26:20.

7. Will we have to give account of all our untrue and hurtful words? Matt. 12:36, 37.
8. Do seemingly Godly people sometimes fall into the sin of slander and evil talking? James 1:26.
9. What are the qualifications of those whom the Lord will allow into His tabernacle? Psa. 15:1-3.

THE WATER OF LIFE

The woman at the well could not comprehend what the Master told her — she thought only of temporal water and did not realize that Jesus was offering her the water of life. Christ is standing with outstretched hand — offering the water of life to anyone who will receive it.

Jesus said, “the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.” Many today do not yield themselves completely to the Lord, and do not have deep, satisfying joy in their Christian life — serving Christ to them is a burden instead of a joy. If you have not yielded your all to the Master — do so today!

Scripture Reading: Isaiah 12.

Memory Verse: Revelation 22:17.

1. What is God’s invitation to those who are thirsty? Isaiah 44:3; 51:1.

Lesson for November 28, 1987

THE BIRTH OF JESUS

Scriptures tell us that Christ is the "Star of Jacob" (Numbers 2:17); the "Day Star" (II Peter 1:19); the "Bright and Morning Star" (Revelation 22:16). Lesson for December 5, 1987
THE SUFFERING OF CHRIST

The terrible suffering of our Lord Jesus Christ is well portrayed in the Scriptures so that we will realize the extent of the price He paid to free us from sin and death. It is impossible, however, to realize the extent of the love which compelled him to die in our place. The Scriptures say that even to the end He loved. He could not so much as find it in Him to hate his murderers. In His hour of deepest agony He asked God to forgive them. His lesson in love; His example of selfless sacrifice, can never be fully appreciated.

JESUS UNEXPECTEDLY APPEARS TO HIS ### DISCIPLES

Jesus is with us every day. We should not limit Him to Sabbaths, prayer meetings or our quiet times alone with Him. Although it is very true that we are greatly blessed by His presence during those times, it is also equally true that, more often than not, He is right there beside us at the work bench, in the office, while we wash the dishes, drive the car or whatever daily activity we may be engaged in. Those are the times when we least expect Him, and this should not be so.

The disciples' efforts at fishing were wonderfully blessed when they worked according to the instructions of the Lord. We need to be sure that our work is pleasing unto the Lord, so that our labours may be blessed by Him.

Scripture Reading: Mark 16:9-20.

7. What soul-searching question did Jesus ask Peter? John 21:15.
8. How did Peter feel when the Lord asked him the third time if he really loved Him? John 21:17.
9. When Peter saw the disciple whom the Lord loved following, what did he ask the Lord? John 21:20, 21.

THE MIRACLE OF CONVERSION

Nothing is as miraculous as a life changed through the shed blood of Calvary.
