

My Health Today... Pulmonary TB

Some years back, one of my close friend and brother succumbed to pulmonary tuberculosis. Just like that. A humble and charismatic young zealous Messianic brother and evangelist. We justified it, as we always do.

Then, it didn't hit me hard. I had not appreciated fully what pulmonary TB does to a human body.

However, in my recent assignments, I have come face to face with patients suffering from one of the oldest yet notorious respiratory infection. The pain and agony of being treated for bacterial pneumonia only to find out you've been suffering from pulmonary tuberculosis is just unsettling. And as if that is not just enough, you are fed with another set of not-so-amusing news: the treatment will be slow and long. Aware that a brother or sister may suffer the same fate, here are a few paragraphs to bail you out should you be in the same position. TB should not kill in the 21st Century.

What is pulmonary tuberculosis (PTB).

It is a chronic respiratory infection caused by mycobacterium tuberculosis (MTB). Whereas it can affect almost every part of the body, chest infections are the most common. Other notable organs include the spine and the brain. Other species of mycobacterium cause some of the ancient and dreadful diseases such as leprosy.

Pulmonary TB is spread through droplets of sputum from an infected individual to a healthy individual.

Symptoms of PTB.

A cough lasting for more than two weeks, productive of sputum, bloody or not; chest pain, night sweats, unexplained weight loss (wasting) and loss of appetite should be a cause for alarm.

What to do

Should one display such symptoms, it would be prudent to visit a medical facility, preferably one with capacity to test for MTB. The easiest and fastest way to test for it is by running a PCR GeneXpert test on early morning sputum. This test employs almost the same mechanism as the one being used to test for COVID19. Results take 48 to 72 hours to be ready. Other useful tests will include a complete blood count, ESR and a chest X-ray.

Treatment

The treatment journey is a long and cumbersome one. The shortest time it takes to complete the regimen is six months. It may go up to ten to twelve months for spine TB or TB meningitis. Completing these medications is paramount. Failure leads to recurrence or worse development of resistant forms of TB. With the resistant forms, treatment may last up to 18 to 24 months.

Complications

TB left untreated can cause pus accumulation in the lungs. It can also cause bleeding when coughing leading to acute blood loss. Chronic scarring of lung tissues may cause poor oxygenation and compromised blood flow and therefore heart failure, among other complications.

Prevention

Well, prevention is better than cure. Childhood BCG vaccine is the first step in prevention. Secondly, discourage smoking among your close contacts. Maintain a balanced diet for a sturdy immunity and encourage immunosuppressed individuals to do the same, as in the case of HIV/AIDS patients. Practice Cough hygiene and seek early medical attention in case of TB symptoms.

Finally,

3John 1:2 Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

Editor's Note

It's yet another issue that we release amidst the worldwide pandemic of Covid-19. Since we are in the world, we are also affected by the pandemic in our daily activities. As Messianic believers our duty is to pray for the healing of the world. When the Israelites were taken to captivity in Babylon by the Chaldeans, they were advised to pray for the peace of the Country they were taken to, since when the country enjoyed the peace, the Israelites too would have the peace (Jeremiah 29:7).

Jeremiah 29:7 And seek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captives, and pray unto the LORD for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace.

We are living in Perilous times, which were foreseen and foretold by the Apostles. Through the holy Spirit, the Apostles advise us on how to overcome these perilous times and stand undefiled before Messiah in his second coming. The aforementioned is expounded in "PERILOUS TIMES". Due to the advancement of knowledge in our times, that is, 21st century, it's imperative to know the Scriptural perspective pertaining Science. A timely Article on the foregoing by Martin Makokha is in this issue, "SCIENCE IN THE BIBLE". As we await the eternal kingdom to replace all the worldly kingdoms, it's paramount to know that "THE TEN COMMANDMENTS" are binding in our times and the gate pass to the coming kingdom as outlined by Ezekiel Ngogoyo. Solomon Macharia inputs on "WITNESSING". It's said of those who escaped the perils of the last days, and who stand redeemed and saved before Elohim that, "THEY ARE CALLED, THE CHOSEN AND FAITHFUL" (Rev 17:4), as outlined by Lawrence Mugambi in an article by the same title. James Njenga writes on a very important issue in the end of times, which every believer who awaits the soon coming kingdom should endeavor to "EXCHANGE PETITION FOR PRAISE" as advised by the article. "MESSIAH AS A PACKAGE", continues... In the health corner we have covered pulmonary Tuberculosis.

Let's continue praying for the healing of the world as we also spread the 3rd Angel's Message, since by doing so, we shall be giving hope to the world, where many have lost hope and despaired because of many challenges in the world including and not limited to Covid-19.

Finally, as believers let's be of good cheer amidst all setbacks. (John 16:33).

John 16:33 These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

the message conveying.

Since we wanted to maximize our potential we also engaged the locals in door to door interactions. We split into teams and left for the engagement in the morning and met later in the noon. Each team had different feedback. My team met with different people affiliated to different religion. We met with a Muslim who was very keen to what we conveyed. He also enlightened us on issues concerning Islam. Kibra has many Muslims and mosques could be seen around from where we had our open air meeting.

On Sabbath we got reinforcement from various churches around the area. The students had attended from almost every part of the country. We had even representatives from Coast, Nyanza, Rift Valley, Eastern etc. Hence the message conveying included positive ethnicity. Through the interaction with the students, I realized that there were those who can be very good 3rd Angel's Message conveyers. That's why it is paramount to nurture our youths and prepare them for Elohim's work. Paul advises Timothy on the same 1st Timothy 4:12.

The Sacrifice made by the University of Nairobi Messianic Students in the Mission was visible in how they treated the visitors. I can attest of the aforementioned, they did the job as if to Messiah and not man (Colossians 3:23).

The message conveying was conclude without any hitch, we thank Elohim for provision and guidance during the mission. We thank the U. O. N. M. S. A, M. S.A.K, Kibra church and all people that took part in the Mission. May Elohim bless them abundantly for the ardent job. Messiah as a package continues...

By Peter G. King'ori

The gospel should be preached to all people since Messiah promised that the gospel will be preached to all parts of the world as affirmed in Mathew 24:14 "And the gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations: and then shall the end come". Messiah's followers were very zealous in spreading the gospel after his ascension to heaven as attested throughout the book of Acts. This was the greatest commission by Messiah to them (Mathew 28:19-20). As their successors we should be even more zealous since time is of essence. The aforementioned is when compared with this era. They commenced the gospel in the 1st Century while we are conveying the gospel in the 21st century. Meaning we should be more zealous than them.

The mission was co-hosted by The University of Nairobi Messianic Students Association under the umbrella of Messianic Students Association of Kenya (M. S.A.K) with Kibra Jerusalem church of God/Elohim. Initially the inter-universities and other institutions forum under M. S.A.K was to be held within the host's university premises but didn't materialize hence Kibra church came on board to host the forum. In a previous forum of the M.S.A.K we had been hosted inside the host's institution at Kenyatta University by Kenyatta University Messianic Students Association (K. U. M. E. S. A). Kibra being in Nairobi the capital city of the country allowed many people to be in the mission.

As usual like any other mission the plans commenced earlier. The Message conveying was to commence prior the forum. Coincidentally the Kibra church had just finished building a spacious church which made the accommodations convenient. The Messengers arrived on time to commence the mission. As the message was being conveyed we received positive feedback from the ground every day until the Sabbath when we concluded the Mission. Since the mission was made up of many students, their input was visible even in

Perilous Times

By Peter King'

Being in the twenty first century, we have seen and embraced most of the technological advancement than our predecessors in the preceding centuries. As Messianic believers we are also in the world hence have embraced the same technological advancement. There are advantages and disadvantages of the advancement in both spiritual and physical aspects of our lives. The Apostle Paul through the holy Spirit foresaw what would happen in the world many centuries after his death. He advised the brethren not to be conformed to the world but instead be transformed by the renewal of the mind as outlined in Romans 12:1-2. Romans 12:1 I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. 12:2 And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

We should not condemn the advancement in technology. On contrary, we should use it for our advantage. In contrast, our predecessors, precisely the Apostles, preached the gospel to many and were zealous amidst a lot of setbacks. Transportation and Communication was very limited in comparison with our times. In our era, the aforementioned tioned is much improved and hence, we can use the same to further the gospel that was entrusted to us. Unfortunately, it's also in our era that Paul foresaw Perilous times as affirmed by 2nd Timothy 3:1. 2 Timothy 3:1 This know also, that in the last day's perilous times shall come.

The foregoing suppresses the gospel conveyance to many non-believers, since Satan has taken advantage of our ignorance (2nd Corinthians 2:11). 2 Corinthians 2:11 Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices. It's the prerogative of an individual to suppress Satan's voice and listen to Elohim's voice. Men have become lovers of their own selves and hence don't care of the rest of the mankind. Instead of being brothers' keepers, they have become brothers' destroyers. The aforesaid spirit should not be in a believer's heart and mind, and whenever it creeps, it should be suppressed by the word of Elohim. The word of Elohim urges us to pursue peace with all men as attested in Hebrews 12:14. Hebrews 12:14 Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord: Although we are living in Perilous times, Elohim has promised to be with us and strengthen us for the task he has laid for us afore time. We only need to be in harmony with his directives and seek his divine guidance amidst all the challenges in our times.

Prior Messiah's ascension into the heavens, he foretold of the end of time signs that would happen just before his second coming. Most of these signs have been fulfilled to the letter in our times. Meaning the second coming of the Son of man is very near as attested by the signs foretold in Mathew 24:3-14. For us to be faithful servants, we must be preaching the gospel to the world so that when Messiah comes back with the kingdom we should receive the reward from him and be allowed into the kingdom. There is also a blessing attached to the conveying of the gospel in the end times prior the establishment of the eternal kingdom (Mathew 24:45-46).

Matthew 24:45 Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season? 24:46 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

As the world get wicked and people get desperate, we can give them hope by preaching the gospel that has power to make them hopeful despite the setbacks in the world. It's also paramount to be vigilant and prayerful so as to overcome the perilous times and stand blameless before Elohim and undefiled. The foregoing is only possible if we accept to follow Elohim's directives to the letter amidst all challenges and setbacks in this wicked world at the perilous times.

should be saved."

Notice the expression, "with gladness and singleness of heart, praising Elohim." One reason the ministry of the early believers was so effective was their continual gladness of heart and praising Elohim. Worship and praise to Elohim were a part of the daily lives of the early believers. It wasn't something they did occasionally. When Paul and Silas were thrown in jail at Philippi, to them, it was only natural they should pray and sing praises to Elohim. Not only did the prisoners hear them, but Elohim heard them. Suddenly there was such a great earthquake that the foundations of the prison shook! All the doors sprung open. Everyone's bonds were loosed. Deliverance came while they were praising Elohim! They ministered to the Lord.

An Old Testament counterpart is found in Second Chronicles 20, when Jehoshaphat went out against the enemy. Three armies; the Ammonites, the Moabites, and the inhabitants of Mount Seir had banded together against Jehoshaphat. He didn't have the manpower to stand against them, so he called a prayer meeting. The people fasted and prayed. The Spirit of Elohim came upon a Levite by the name Jahaziel who was in the congregation, and he stood and prophesied. The LORD told them not to fear. He told them where the enemies were and said to go against them because the battle was the LORD'S. The next morning, they marched against the enemy, and the Bible says they put the praisers up front. Picture these men going against three armies armed for battle. Right up front to lead the parade of Elohim's army were the praisers. They weren't led by a man with a sword or a spear. They were led by men singing and praising the Lord! They ministered to the LORD. As they marched along, they shouted, "Praise the Lord; for His mercy endureth forev- er" (2 Chron. 20:21). We see in the next verse what happened as a result: "And when they began to sing and to praise, the Lord set ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah; and they were smitten." [2 Chro 20:22] When they began to sing and praise, Elohim did something for His people. They saw a manifestation of His power. They didn't have to draw a sword or throw a javelin. The enemies were defeated and left all their goods. There was so much spoil it took three days to gather it up and carry it home! Today, there are many who have been praying and petitioning Elohim to move in their behalf. If they would quit praying and begin praising, Elohim would give them so much they couldn't carry it all home at one time! Exchange petition for praise!

Paul and Silas had their feet in stocks. From the natural standpoint, they had every reason to be downcast. But at midnight, as they ministered to Elohim, there came a manifestation of Elohim's power. We need to have praise services where we gather to praise Elohim and to minister to the Lord; not to minister to one another, not to brag on one another, not to tell what I have and you don't, or what I'm trying to get. We need services where we minister to the Lord and sing praises to Him. Then we would see mighty manifestations of Elohim's presence in our day. Just praise His Name!

some of the songs some sing, because some of these songs don't praise Elohim. Some songs are more of a complaint than a praise. The songs seem to have the "poor old me" attitude, we're wandering through life destitute, downtrodden, and in dark valleys. That still doesn't give Elohim any praise. But Paul and Silas sang praises to Elohim. Notice, too, 'the prisoners heard them'. They weren't quiet about this! If Paul and Silas had been like a lot of people today, instead of praying and singing praises at midnight, they would've been griping and complaining. And the Scripture might have read something like this:

'About midnight Paul and Silas griped and complained and Silas nudged Paul and said, "Paul, are you still there?" It's very dark, so Paul says, "Where else could I be?" and Silas said to him, "You know Paul, we really got it wrong in the first place by coming to this Philippi place, didn't we?" While Paul is trying to figure out where they missed it, Silas says, "I'll tell you one thing, when I was still in the world and of the world, I never got thrown in jail. I don't know why Elohim let this happen to us." "Yeah, we missed it somewhere," Paul says. "And I tell you, my poor back is really hurting me bad. You know, I really thought Elohim was speaking to me in that vision, but if Elohim were in it, we'd have been a success."

Paul and Silas really were in trouble. They were thrust into the inner prison. They had been whipped with many stripes. Their feet were in stocks. I'm sure they were in physical pain. It was a dark hour for them, but although Paul and Silas were in jail, they didn't let the jail get in them. That's the reason a lot of people are defeated. Everyone has trouble of one kind or another. We've all been lashed by the storms of life. But our attitude, how we look at a situation and how we accept it makes the difference in how we come out, or whether we get out at all. In our midnight hour, when we don't understand why things have happened, even though we've tried our best, let us look at Paul and Silas. After all, they didn't go to Philippi on a pleasure trip. They were there to do the Lord's work. They were not out of the will of Elohim. Sometimes when things don't go right, people think, "I must be out of the will of Elohim." Or they ask, "What awful sin have I committed to cause Elohim to send this on me?" Elohim didn't send the trouble; the devil did. It wasn't Elohim who whipped Paul and Silas; it was ungodly men. Elohim didn't stir up those ungodly fellows; it was the devil. In spite of persecution, adversity, and depressing surroundings, 'At midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto Elohim, and the prisoners heard them.' They weren't quiet about it! They were praising Elohim at midnight right out loud in jail. They ministered to the Lord.

A characteristic of the early disciples was their continual praises to Elohim. We read in Luke 24:50-53 "And He [Yahshua] led them out as far as to Bethany, and He lifted up His hands, and blessed them. 51 And it came to pass, while He blessed them, He was parted from them, and carried up into heaven. 52 And they worshipped Him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy: 53 And were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen." Then notice the second chapter of Acts, verses 46 and 47: "And they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, 47 Praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as

In the Bible

By Martin Makokha.

Elohim our Creator is the Supreme and has revealed Himself to mankind in two ways; Through His Word- The Bible and through nature. Even without reading the Bible nature declares, has signs and marks proofing the existence of the Supreme Being. The study of nature is what is called Science and remember this nature is the workmanship of Elohim

Men of God at all times have upheld Biblical principles and at no time have they ever feared Science. Many think that Science is against the Bible, but the truth is that true Science upholds the Bible. Science has many theories that must be taken just like 'theories' and not facts. These theories are the ones that some argue being against the Bible, but theories are just that way "theories" A theory is just an idea from someone explaining something, other dictionaries define it as "assumptions that attempts to explain something" (businessdictionary.com)

Here are a few areas that true Science agrees with the Bible truth;

Historical records tend to indicate that around 500 B.C a scientist by the name Pythagoras figured out and documented that the earth was round. History captures him as the first man to come to this realization but the truth is that Pythagoras wasn't the first to document it. This truth was revealed to Prophet Isaiah over 240 and 400 years before Pythagoras and Aristotle were born; "It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; that stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in" Isaiah 40:22

Scientists came to a discovery that vapour turns into rain, this is whereby water in oceans, Lake etc. evaporates to the sky then makes rain. This type of rain was given a name convectional rainfall. This was recorded in the Bible thousands of years before Arthur Holmes made his explanation to win medals; "He causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings for the rain; he bringeth the wind out of his treasures." Ps.135:7

Hydrological cycle is something close to evaporation as mentioned in point two above. This was also documented in the Bible years before Bernard Palissy (1580CE) published it; "The wind goeth toward the south, and turneth about unto the north; it whirleth about continually, and the wind returneth again according to his circuits. All the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea is not full; unto the place from whence the rivers come, thither they return again." Ecc.1:6, 7 and Job 36:27,28.

Scientists have for many years studied in an effort to discover what this earth hangs on; all research so far have come to a dead end. They have not found any element that holds the earth. The Bible says; "He stretcheth out the north over the empty place, and hangeth the earth upon nothing."

Job 26:7

True Science helps us understands the Creator and His workmanship better and a true believer appreciates Science just like a true Scientist appreciates God's Word.

Amidst the current pandemic ministry of health is giving some directives using terms that are unfamiliar to some. Being that we are told to "watch always" some may ask if following the directives might be going against the Bible, thus we strive to rightly divide the Word of truth as far as these terms are concerned.

A health personnel in full personal protective equipment (PPE).

QUARANTINE

All over the world nations are shouting the word "Quarantine" in other words they are calling it "Lock down" This isn't a new word, it was with our patriarchs of old and was practiced then just like we are being urged to practice it now. Let's forget Science for a moment and listen from the Bible.

God chose the Children of Israel to be His people and to whom He bestowed all truth and justice. He commanded them on how to build their camps, and then added the following;

"Command the children of Israel, that they put out of the camp every leper, and every one that hath an issue, and whosoever is defiled by the dead: Both male and female shall ye put out, without the camp shall ye put them; that they defile not their camps, in the midst whereof I dwell." Numb. 5:2-3

Lepers (people with contagious diseases) were put outside the camp, alone (Lev. 13:46) so that they should not defile the camps. In other word's God is telling the Israelites any person with a contagious disease should be quarantined outside the camp, so that he/she should not infect healthy people when they come in contact.

The order was very clear in that even Moses own Sister Miriam was quarantined for seven days, when she contracted the disease. Being the elder sister of Moses, a sister to Aaron the priest and the chief musician when they crossed Red Sea. All those didn't prevent her from quarantine and isolation. (Numbers 12:15)

King Uzziah also despite being King of Judah when he contracted leprosy, was isolated and quarantined away from his throne and house until the day he died (2 Chron.26:20, 21) This is a high ranking official in the Kingdom but had to be subjected to the requirements of the Law. The Bible gives lots of examples of people in quarantine including in Luke

Scientist just adopted a Biblical procedure, quarantine in the Bible didn't apply to Leprosy (contagious diseases) alone but, to those who had direct contact with a corpse (Numbers 9:6), a carcass of unclean beast (Lev.5:2), etc. Thus it's Biblical amidst the COVID-19 pandemic for the government to call on people to self or forceful quarantine.

Exchange Petition for Praise

By James Njenga

Acts 13:2 "As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them."

Often it seems the only kind of prayer we are familiar with is the petition prayer.

We're always petitioning (or asking) Elohim to do something, and of course that's scriptural. But in the Scripture quoted above, those believers were not petitioning Elohim to do anything. They 'ministered to the Lord, and fasted....' Most of our church services are designed so we come together and minister TO one another. We sing, but in very few songs do we minister to the Lord. Instead, we minister to one another. We have special singing, but still we're not ministering to the Lord; we're ministering to one another and when we pray, our praying is primarily a petition. We know Elohim is concerned about us and wants to meet our needs. Yahshua said our heavenly Father knows what we need, and we should ask Him to supply these needs. But, too much of the time it's all about petitioning. We also need times of waiting on Elohim and ministering TO the Lord; times when we're not asking for anything, not petitioning, but ministering to Him. Perhaps we are already taking time for this in our individual prayer lives, but we need this kind of prayer as a group or a church. Elohim can move in this kind of atmosphere. As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, our text says, the Holy Spirit manifested Himself!

Elohim made man to fellowship with Him. He is our Father, because we are born of Elohim. I'm sure of this: There are no earthly parents who enjoy the fellowship of their children more than Elohim enjoys the fellowship of His children. Let's have some different kinds of services. Besides our Sabbaths, some of us have week days gathering(s). Such service should be set aside for ministering to the Lord; and not for preaching or teaching but only for ministering to Him. We should not come to petition Elohim; but to wait on the Lord and not just wait for 10 minutes but should come with the thought that we're going to wait at least one hour. We miss a lot of what Elohim has for us because we don't take time to get into an attitude of worship and minister to Him. Elohim does move in such meetings. A Bible example of this is found in the 16th chapter of Acts. Paul and Silas while doing the Lord's work at Philippi, they were arrested and bitten with 'many stripes' [v.23]. They were bitten by gentiles and when it says they were beaten with many stripes it really means many [not just 40 or less had they been bitten by the Jews]. They were then cast into prison. The jailer was charged to keep them safely, "who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks." [v.24] Notice particularly the 25th verse, "And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them."

They certainly couldn't have been singing gave His life and died His blood to save the lost.

Let each reader examine his own heart, and decide if he possesses divine love, which prompts him to give that which is dearest and worth the most to him, in order to save the lost, and call the perishing ones out of Babylon, so they will escape the perils of the closing time, and the seven last plagues which are soon to fall.

The Faithful

The Lord says the redeemed and delivered ones from earth are the Called, the Chosen, and the Faithful. Faithfulness means much, and Yahshua says if we are faithful in that which is least, we are faithful also in much, and that it is required of a steward to be faithful. We have been entrusted with certain talents. To one is given more than to another, but if we dig in the earth as it were, and hide the Lord's money, we are counted as a slothful servant. I fear that many are devoting, the Lord's money to furnish bread to supply the physical needs of friends or loved ones, and are thus burying the Lord's money.

The portion of our lives that He requires, and which is plainly set forth in both the Old and New Testaments, is the tithe. He is testing men and women today as to their faithfulness. The tithe, "the first fruits", is expressly to go for the spiritual welfare, and not for the temporal needs of humanity. The difference is so vastly great between the physical and the spiritual, that no comparison can in reality be made. The physical is only for a few years, while the spiritual is for all eternity. It reaches throughout the countless ages and cycles of time. Christendom must be faithful if they are to be among the chosen and escape the seven last plagues and be received into the kingdom of Elohim.

It is not necessary to produce any argument relative to the duty of every Believer in giving themselves to save the lost. Neither is it in order to produce the many Scriptures setting for the Biblical teaching in both the Old and New Testaments on tithe paying. They are many, and it is a moral duty so firmly set forth that the Almighty called those who willfully neglected or refused to pay the tithe, robbers, and brought great curses upon the land for this sin.

Let not one Believer be deceived by thinking himself a Believer unless he possesses that divine love for saving the lost, that will prompt them to sacrifice in administering to their eternal needs. Even if times are Hard and incomes cut down, the Heavenly Father is expecting faithfulness on the part of every one of His children. He promises to so bless the remaining portion that the giver of the tithe will be more than repaid temporally. This trust not be the motive in being a faithful steward of the Lord. His great love will so incarnate our very beings that it will be a joy to sacrifice, and give ourselves freely to carry the bread of life to earth's perishing millions. Then we will be blessed a hundred fold in this life, and be among the number of the Called, the Chosen, and the Faithful, when our short race here is finished. Editor.

demic each and every one is talking of self-distancing as if it's a new word coined by scientists. The Bible in principle advocates for self-distancing in instances of contagious diseases. Biblical accounts mostly talk of Leprosy because at the time that was the most common known contagious infection.

"And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood afar off:"

Luke 17:12. (KJV)

Other versions of the Bible put that verse this way;

"And as he entered a village, he was met by ten lepers, who stood at a distance" (RSV)

"And when he went into a certain small town he came across ten men who were lepers, and they, keeping themselves at a distance," (BBE)

The key word in the above verse is, "stood afar off" or "who stood/keeping at a distance" Adam's Clarke in explaining this says, "They kept at a distance..."

Albert Barnes Commentary says "At a distance, as they were required by law"

The Fourfold Gospel Commentary suggests this, "The rabbis are said to have prescribed a fixed distance at which lepers must keep, but authority varies as to this distance, some giving it as a rod and others as high as a hundred paces."

Remember these Leper's in Luke had knowledge of the required distance, thus they never let themselves come near Yahshua or the public, that's why it's called "self-distancing". Perhaps they were more informed than today's people who doesn't want to heed to any self-distancing instructions.

In Leviticus 13:45, 46 which is the Law that governs self-distancing, talks of being alone and outside the camp. This clearly indicates that such a person was not allowed to get into contact with uninfected ones.

Required distance was determined by the Levites who at the time were charged with matters health. They were the one to declare who goes for quarantine, and who goes out of quarantine. Thus they were the health officials of the time.

Thus when the Government through Health officials gives orders on self-distancing they're just doing what Biblical Patriarchs did.

BIBLE AND FUMIGATION

We won't brag to have understood science better than our maker; He was the first Scientist and a Great one ever with no match across the generations. His workmanship has remained superb never to be challenged by anyone to date.

God knew that contagious diseases would come and thus warned His people the children of Israel to take precaution in any circumstance they come across.

Leviticus 14 is a whole chapter that deals with fumigation of a house that has been affected by a contagious disease. Versus 54 and 55 sums it as follows;

"This is the law for all manner of plague of leprosy, and scall, And for the leprosy of a garment, and of a house," Lev.14:54, 55.

Being the only begotten son of Elohim, Yahshua knew very well that Torah (Deut 6:16) forbids man from tempting Elohim, (Luke 4:12). We should not place ourselves in the harm's way then claim deliverance from Elohim. In this pandemic it's our duty as believers who understands and follow Biblical principles to uphold all the directives from the Ministry that are in tandem with the Scriptures. As we believe and pray for the pandemic to be defeated we need not to forget our duty to the Torah teachings on the health practices in such cases.

THE REFERENCE OF THE TEN (10) TRUE COMMANDMENTS OF GOD(ELOHIM).

Where can one get the correct Bible Ten Commandments?

Only find them complete and correct from the Bible: EXODUS 20: 1-17.*

- 1 And God spoke all these words:
- 2 "I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery.
- 3 "You shall have no other gods before me.
- 4 "You shall not make for yourself an image in the form of anything in heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the waters below.
- 5 You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, punishing the children for the sin of the parents to the third and fourth generation of those who hate me,
- 6 but showing love to a thousand generations of those who love me and keep my commandments.
- 7 "You shall not misuse the name of the LORD your God, for the LORD will not hold anyone guiltless who misuses his name.
- 8 "Remember the Sabbath day by keeping it holy. 9 Six days you shall labor and do all your work, 10 but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God. On it you shall not do any work, neither you, nor your son or daughter, nor your male or female servant, nor your animals, nor any foreigner residing in your towns. 11 For in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but he rested on the seventh day. Therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy.
- 12 "Honor your father and your mother, so that you may live long in the land the LORD your God is giving you.
- 13 "You shall not murder.

- 14 "You shall not commit adultery.
- 15 "You shall not steal.
- 16 "You shall not give false testimony against your neighbor.
- 17 "You shall not covet your neighbor's house. You shall not covet your neighbor's wife, or his male or female servant, his ox or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor."

A Catechical version of the altered Ten Commandments is not the true replica in the bible. The table below speaks these adulterations openly.

I am the LORD your God: you shall not have strange Gods before me.

You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain.

Remember to keep holy the LORD'S Day

Honor your father and your mother.

You shall not kill.

You shall not commit adultery.

You shall not steal.

You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

You shall not covet your neighbor's wife.

You shall not covet your neighbor's goods.

You need to observe keenly that, the catechical version has perniciously omitted what he referred to as the second commandment—"You shall not make for yourself a graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth" (Exodus 20:4)—in order to keep the Catholic faithful in darkness as to the truth that they should not have statues in their churches.

This table compares and contrasts the true Ten Commandments and the adulterated version:

ter supper is given at another and so on. We are truly living at the time of feasting which Messiah said would mark the closing period of this age. and the honest of heart, the real true Believers, are disgusted with the present state and practice in the modern churches. Therefore, the message is in order to "COME OUT OF HER, MY PEOPLE". Many are responding as the invitation call to the marriage supper of the Lamb goes forth. They are coming out of Babylon. and preparing to escape the seven last plagues.

In many city churches, if a poorly dressed man enters and seats himself, he will be invited to leave, and directed to services held for such as his class. If our Messiah would enter barefoot, and in the common clothing worn in his time and place, he would be refused entrance, or invited to leave.

I am informed by a leading evangelist whose business it has been to go from place to place and carry on revival meetings, that in most all city churches there is tolerated all kind of vice and sin by people who have money with which to pay the pastor and help defray the church expenses. This man said that when he went into a new place, he was requested by the local pastor not to say anything against bootlegging because so and so makes his living that way, and times were hard, and they must have his support. Also not to say anything against the dance because another person, a good supporter of the church, runs a public dance; and not to condemn the poker game because another person is much interested in it, and he is a good member; not to mention the card game, or the theatre, for similar reasons.

This particular man was himself so disgusted with present vice in the church, against which he was not free to speak, that he has resigned his work and entered another profession.

Babylon has truly become the habitation of devils, the hold of every foul spirit, and the cage, of every unclean and hateful bird, as the Bible said it would be in the closing time. —Rev. 18:2.

The very cream of modern churches, men and women, who are praying to Elohim for light and understanding, have awakened to prevailing sins in the church, and are seeking for a people who stand whole-heartedly for the truth and for His righteousness. It is this class who are responding to the call "COME OUT OF HER, MY PEOPLE". -- Rev. 18:4.

The Chosen

Elohim is choosing such as have a contrite heart, and who yield to His pleading voice, following the "Lamb whithersoever he goeth". Elohim says: "They shall walk with me in white, for they are worthy". It is only by the power of the M-ighty through the blessed Holy Spirit that men and women will escape from the corruption of the age, and the pollution from contact with worldly people.

The Lord gave warning by saying: "Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees". So it is today: worldly company will affect anyone unless he prays, and thus becomes magnetized with a resistant power, and filled with divine virtue, that instead of being leavened by the worldly conversation, aspirations and desires of worldly people, he will have power with them and bring them back to Elohim. The Lord is only choosing such to walk with Him in white.

It is only those who have a missionary zeal, and who by following the footsteps of the Master and a life of prayer, are able to overcome this present wicked world, and labor to save others.

The Saviour says: "Many are called, but few are chosen". As the message of calling people from the confusion of Babylon goes forth, it will only be the portion of those responding to the call, who pray for the Holy Spirit, and who receive it, that will be saved. The fruits of the Spirit are "love, joy, peace". etc.

The love referred to means divine love. Every-one possesses natural human love. but the love that comes as a fruit of the Holy Spirit is the love our Heavenly Father manifested when "He gave His only begotten Son" to save the lost and wayward men and women. It is that love that actuated Yahshua when He

THE CALLED, THE CHOSEN, THE FAITHFUL

By Lawrence Mugambi

It is said of those who escaped the perils of the last days, and who stand redeemed and saved before Elohim, that “they are the called, the chosen and faithful”. – Rev. 17:14.

We are living in the calling time. The time universally the great invitation call is going forth throughout the entire world. While distress and perplexities are causing men's hearts to fail them or fear, the people are admonished by the Savior that when these things begin to come to pass, they are to lift up their heads and be glad.

“Lift up your head. despondent pilgrim. Give to the wind your needless fears. He who has said redemption neareth, Has promised to reign one thousand years”.

We are called to the highest calling on earth. It is to a seat with Yahshua, and with the redeemed of earth. and to reign in king-ly or priestly authority for one thousand years. See Rev. 20th Chapter, also Rev. 5:9.

“Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the lamb is come, and his wife (the church) bath made herself ready. And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints. And he said unto me: Write. Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb-. — Rev. 19:7-9.

The great message of the hour is a call: “COME OUT OF HER. MY PEOPLE, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye re-ceive not of her plagues’. Rev. 18:4.

This message of calling people out of Baby-lon is spoken of also in Rev. 14:9, 10, for it is the same voice speaking from heaven, following the one that heralds the message of the fall of Babylon. In the latter place it is a special warn-ing against worshipping the beast, with the de-cree that those who do so, will drink of the wine of the wrath of Elohim (the seven last Plagues. Rev. 15, I, 7).

Babylon consists of the mother church, and her daughters. See Rev. 17: 4. 5.

It is the church that once ruled the world with the so-called Protestant churches that have branches off from her who have fallen. They have become abiding places for every foul spirit and cages of every unclean and hateful bird. Rev. 18: 2. 3.

This is why the message calling the honest of heart out of Babylon is timely, and consti-tutes the great message of the times.

The churches of Christendom are not what they once were. It has only been a few years since prayer meetings were well attended in the church, and when people would ride for miles to attend an old-fashioned house to house pra-yer meeting in the country districts, but now pleas-ure and feasting have taken the place of prayer and fasting.

In order to get an attendance at the city chur-ches, the world has been invited into the church. You will find the poolroom, the billiard table, the card decks, and even the dancing halls in the basement of popular churches. No wonder the call to “COME OUT OF HER, MY PEO-PLE” is a timely message.

In order to attract people to prayer meet-ings, doughnuts are served, while coffee and sand-wiches are served at other places. An oys-need to learn to not take it personally, in other words it should not bother us if those we are witnessing to don't agree and even judge us about the issue at hand. We need to learn that if we go into a discussion on the word of God, it is His word and not ours, why should we get angry with others when they do not accept God's word? One day this folks may find themselves on the "road to Damascus" for a life changing event, Let God deal with them.

Matthew 10:17-19

<sup>17</sup> Be on your guard; you will be handed over to the local councils and be flogged in the synagogues. <sup>18</sup> On my account you will be brought before governors and kings as witnesses to them and to the Gentiles. <sup>19</sup> But when they arrest you, do not worry about what to say or how to say it. At that time you will be given what to say,

Too often we pull out the "sword of truth" and are over eager for a confrontation, rushing into the battle array with our battle cry and our sword flashing left and right only to be the sole survivor. The only one left standing is only God and He is not there with us because He stepped back because we were too ruthless like the people sent to judge Israel. They went beyond what He required. This is mishandling of the word of truth. When our battle cry is "take no prisoners" we have forgotten that our opponent is already a prisoner of sin, just as we were. They need to be released and not cut to pieces. At the end of the battle are we the Barbarian resting on our broadsword gloating over the mound of skulls at our feet or the medic or corpsman trying to patch up the work Satan did to the poor soul? Let us learn from the Holy Spirit which will teach us how to witness to each individual. If they want to be quarrelsome, do not keep giving the pearls of great price. If possible on your part be with peace with all men (Romans 12:18). There is a need for men and women of integrity, men and women who will not be influenced by anything apart from the truth, people who love the truth and defend the truth.

Hebrews 3:4-6

<sup>4</sup> For every house is built by someone, but God is the builder of everything. <sup>5</sup> "Moses was faithful as a servant in all God's house,"<sup>[a]</sup> bearing witness to what would be spoken by God in the future. <sup>6</sup> But Yahshua is faithful as the Son over God's house. formed, nor there one after me. <sup>11</sup> I, even I, am the LORD, and apart from me there is no savior. <sup>12</sup> I have revealed and saved and proclaimed—I, and not some foreign god among you. You are my witnesses," declares the LORD, "that I am God. <sup>13</sup> Yes, and from ancient days I am he. No one can deliver out of my hand. When I act, who can reverse it?"

Acts 1:7-8

<sup>7</sup> He said to them: "It is not for you to know the times or dates the Father has set by his own authority. <sup>8</sup> but you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth."

Too often we get argumentative and angry. While there can be righteous anger, what we normally expose is nothing short of pride and arrogance. Notice in proverbs 13:10 that with pride comes only strife. Strife-laden "witness" of the almighty's goodness is a poor witness. For example we can say "I have the truth so you are wrong!"

In proverbs 19:2 we are told "also desire without knowledge is not good; and he who hurries with his feet sins". One should not run head long with the truth of Yahweh. We are also told in Proverbs 12:23 "A clever man is concealing knowledge but the heart of fools proclaims folly". One doesn't need to let out everything he knows at once. Truth is like a barn full of hay you give the cow only the hay she can eat at one time. If you give her all the hay at once you will choke her to death or spoil the hay. Have you realized that you cannot convert anyone? How people try hard to convert others, you would be dumbfounded to know that only Yahweh's spirit can convert and your work is only to proclaim the truth. In John 14:16-26 Yahshua says that he shall ask the father and He shall give us another helper, to stay with us forever the spirit of truth whom the world is unable to receive because it does not see Him or know Him. But we know him for He stays with us and shall be in us, But the helper, the holy spirit whom the father shall send in His name, He shall teach us and remind us of all that He said to us.

John 1:6-8

<sup>6</sup> There was a man sent from God whose name was John. <sup>7</sup> He came as a witness to testify concerning that light, so that through him all might believe. <sup>8</sup> He himself was not the light; he came only as a witness to the light.

It is our duty to proclaim the truth but God's spirit will work in the individual. We have been called to till fields, sow seeds and water the plants. We can pray that the birds of the air be not allowed to take away the seed, we can pray the seed were sown on good soil and we can also pray the cares of this world does not choke the plants but we can never make the plant grow. Some folks think since they can quote many scriptures they are right. Remember Satan quoted scriptures to Yahshua. Others believe that they believe the whole truth and their faith is the only one.

James 2:19

<sup>19</sup> You believe that there is one God. Good! Even the demons believe that — and shudder.

When others do not agree with us we

Shown above, the Catholic Church believe they have the right to change God's law, but it is ludicrous to think that mortal man can change the laws of the Creator of this universe. These are laws which God personally wrote in stone—a copy of His original set of the Ten Commandments that remain unchanged in the heavenly sanctuary which John saw in Revelation.

Which law/command was changed completely?

It is the 4th commandment of Sabbath. This was changed from Saturday to Sunday. But the true Sabbath remains Saturday. Read an article on www.Sabbath Bible prophesy. See also these questions and answers.

"Question - Which is the Sabbath day?" "Answer - Saturday is the Sabbath day."

"Question - Why do we observe Sunday instead of Saturday?"

"Answer - We observe Sunday instead of Saturday because the Catholic Church, in the Council of Laodicea (A.D. 364), transferred the solemnity from Saturday to Sunday." — Peter Geiermann, C.S.S.R., The Convert's Catechism of Catholic Doctrine, p. 50, 3rd edition, 1957.

Whose Day of Worship is Sunday?

"It is well to remind the Presbyterians, Baptists, Methodists, and all other Christians, that the Bible does not support them anywhere in their observance of Sunday. Sunday is an institution of the Roman Catholic Church, and those who observe the day observe a commandment of the Catholic Church." — Priest Brady, in an address reported in The News, Elizabeth,

New Jersey, March 18, 1903

"They [the Protestants] deem it their duty to keep the Sunday holy. Why? Because the Catholic Church tells them to do so. They have no other reason...The observance of Sunday thus comes to be an ecclesiastical law entirely distinct from the divine law of Sab- bath observance...The author of the Sunday law...is the Catholic Church." — Ecclesiastical Review, February 1914.

Who Do We Reverence by Keeping Sunday Holy?

"It was the Catholic church which...has transferred this rest to Sunday in remembrance of the resurrection of our Lord. Therefore, the observance of Sunday by the Protestants is an homage they pay, in spite of themselves, to the authority of the (Catholic) church." — Monsignor Louis Segur, Plain Talk About the Protestantism of Today, p. 213.

"I have repeatedly offered $1,000 to anyone who can prove to me from the Bible alone that I am bound to keep Sunday holy. There is no such law in the Bible. It is a law of the holy Catholic Church alone. The Bible says, 'Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy.' The Catholic Church says: 'No. By my divine power I abolish the Sabbath day and command you to keep holy the first day of the week.' And lo! The entire civilized world bows down in a reverent obedience to the command of the holy Catholic Church." — father T. Enright, C.S.S.R. of the Redemptorist College, Kansas City, in a lecture at Hartford, Kansas, February 18, 1884, printed in History of the Sabbath, p. 802.

My plea to the readers of this article is to hold on the truth. Flee from the false doctrines that have tried and have indeed altered the biblical truth. There have been many genuine, well-meaning Catholic Christians who have read this page and have either disagreed and or been offended with the truths presented here. Again we apologize for those who have been offended as no offence was ever intended in any way. These truths were as big a shock to us when we first discovered these things also and they deeply grieved us. It is only our desire to share Biblical truth and get as many people into the kingdom as possible. As would Christ, we desire that not one should perish as we also love all people from all denominations and walks of life.

Do not condemn me for putting open this naked truth, and if you must condemn me you first need to consider that these are quotations from the Catholic Church, and also prayerfully in your conscious mind read the bible truth.

"Even if the Pope were Satan incarnate, we ought not to rise up our heads against him, but calmly lie down to rest on his bosom. He who rebels against our Father is condemned to death, for that which we do to him we do to Christ: we honor Christ if we honor the Pope; we dishonor Christ if we dishonor the Pope. I know very well that many defend themselves by boasting: 'They are so corrupt, and work all manner of evil!' But God has commanded that, even if the priests, the pastors, and Christ-on-earth were incarnate devils, we be obedient and subject to them, not for their sakes, but for the sake of God, and out of obedience to Him." — St. Catherine of Siena, SCS, p. 201-202, p. 222, (quoted in Apostolic Digest, by Michael Malone, Book 5: "The Book of Obedience", Chapter 1: "There is No Salvation without Personal Submission to the Pope").

Please don't be angry or condemn me for these unbiblical quotes above, as they were NOT written by me but by the Catholic Church. Kindly carry out your research from the catholic libraries, their journals and their historical records and speeches from their famous bishops and give credit to this article for telling you the truth in time.

To whom is this last message?

The third angel's message is to all mankind. It is still valid to the people who are already in the true Church but still holds on religious dogmas that are not biblically binding. Dogmas that are a setup of personal constitutions and beliefs so that to bind your small factions to ourselves. These are coercive rules, regulations and protocols that are not documented in the bible. Flee out of her my people.

WITNESSING

By Solomon Macharia.

We join in to the lyrics of the song simultaneously. The sound of the beats soon fills the whole living room as we welcome this guest.

*O day of rest and gladness
O day of joy and light
O balm of care and sadness
Most beautiful, most bright
On thee, the high and lowly
Who bend before the throne
Sing, holy holy, holy
To the eternal one*

Everything is now calm and cool; my mind has finally found peace out of the many cares. I can finally forget all and plunge into care free. The song comes to an end but is rhythmically co-joined with yet another well selected chorus.

*Come O Sabbath day and bring peace and healing on the wing
And to every troubled breast
Speak of the divine behest
Thou shall rest, thou shall rest*

The guest is now fully come and we are glad he is here with us. Indeed the Sabbath is the best weekly guest that labors to visit our homes, our lives, our workplaces, our our homes, our lives, our workplaces, our towns, our villages and more so our hearts. It's a weekly gift that is strategically designed and cal-cultured to our favors. From early in life we have always cherished the Sabbath. It comes with rest and feast, Yes we take those rare foods not found on other days. We have never found pain in the restraints of pleasures associated with it. We look forward to sunset on Friday, I remember as a young man it was time to listen to sweet cool music and not those bi-ased news on radios and television.

Sabbath amidst the current pandemic is no longer business as usual; we have turned to online meetings and worship services at home. How is our witnessing, has it been enhanced? How we witness to others can be the difference of whether or not they accept the truth. A bad witness can put a foul taste in one's mouth towards the almighty and His truth and close any door that may have been opened. As we mature in the spirit, we should learn to witness more effectively.

This article is timely and is part of the last angel’s message in dispensing the outcry to the people who are indeed pursuing the genuine eternal life, who have no any other selfish ends. To stop a little and think about this truth, carry out personal research, confirm this truth and make an unfamiliar step in pursuing the truth in the bible.

True steps and action were taken by those who listen to the truth in the bible. True actions of repentance were taken by tax collectors. Genuine concerns were manifested by the people whose entire family were baptized after knowing the truth, some abandoned their comfort zones for the sake of the truth. Some took courageous steps and choose to die rather than offend the truth. Some sold their properties to pursue eternal life. Other famous scholars swallowed their pride and humbled themselves for the sake of the heavenly kingdom.

This article unfortunately will be a witness that you had a significant amount of truth that could save you from Elohim’s wrath. If only you take the first step to abandon the false religious dogmas that will lead you to hell. “Come out of her, my people”. You are loved by God (Elohim), if you have the opportunity to read and gather this same truth. This article is now part of your testimony that the truth has been revealed to you.
