The Jews were proud of the first place they occupied and did not integrate the knowledge of God to the Gentiles, but segregated them. Jesus used this term simply as a test to the woman: she humbled her-self and in a logical way won the most reticent to accept the call for the service, while many who are unqualified always crave to be called. God can better use a humble man who thinks he is unqualified. Such a one, when convinced to go, will de-pend solely upon God, as what to do, what to say, and where to go. This gives God the opportunity to use such a one to His glory.

When God's clock struck the zero hour, He revealed to Moses that He would not see Pharaoh's face any more. The cup of his iniquity was full. He was now to reap the fruits of his rebellion against God.
